Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I have had from the Institute of American Genealogy a copy of your book containing the Isle of Wight marriages and noted from same, the various Beale records, among them being Benjamin Beale who died in 1714. However, I've not been able to locate this Benjamin from the data your book contained and from my files.

The information on Charles Beale is slight but as it is all I have been able to find, will give it to you for what it is worth. He was born Oct. 20, 1676, Farnham Parrish Record, Richmond County, Va., the son of Thos. Beale II and wife, Anne Gooch, of 'Chestnut Hill', Richmond County, Va. It seems that he migrated to Surry County and that is all I've learned concerning him.

The Beales of Southampton County are a little better known to me so can give you more working material on this branch of the family.

Drew Beale of Southampton County married a Miss Spencer and had issue:

- 1 Cowan Beale who moved to Texas or Arkansas
- 2 Boswell Beale
- 3 Gilbert Beale

- 4 Margaret Beale who md 1st Daughtrie and had issue:

A1 Laura Daughtrie who md Robt. Smith: no issue.

A2 Will Daughtrie

A3 Jesse Daughtrie

A4 Maggie Daughtrie

Margaret Beale Daughtrie md 2ndly, John Pinner and had issue

A5 John Pinner, Jr., of Suffolk, Va. (to whom I have written but from whom I've received no reply).

- 5 Harriet Beale, unmarried.

- 6 Jessie Drew Beale, Sr., born and reared in Southampton County, Va., married Margaret P. Lamb of Petersburg, Va., and moved to New Bern, N. C., where they reared their family:

A1 Alice Webb Beale who married a Yankee Army officer and severed all relations with her family by so doing, Dutton of New York.

A2 Cadwalader Hawes Beale md 1st Sallie Alford; 2ndly Taylor Lowe and 3rdly Ella Waddill.

A3 Gilbert Beale md Lucy McRae

A4 Lucy Beale md John Williams

A5 Josie Beale md Phillip A Travis

A6 Norton Beale, unmarried.

A7 Jesse Drew Beale, Jr., md Carrie Phelan and moved to Montgomery, Ala.

From my knowledge of the family, I have presumed that Drew Beale of Southampton County was born about 1790-1800.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I have read from the Institute of American Genealogy a copy of your book containing the life of Alice Beale and noted from your various notes, records, among them being certain Beale who died in 1711. However, I've been able to locate this Beale from the date your book contained and from my files.

The information on Charles Beale is right but as it is all a new record, I will give it to you for what it is worth. He was born 1711, died 1788, married Mary, daughter of John, and wife of John, and after some time, he was in the army. I have been working on this for some time.

The Beale of Southampton County are a little better known to me than you were working material on this branch of the family.

My dear Mrs. Chapman:

I am wondering what you have heard from Cyrus Beale of Richmond and Ernest Beale regarding the genealogical research.

Cyrus Beale continues to write that in the near future he'll have the desired material but to date I have received nothing from him. Thought perhaps he might have solicited your services for the research and because of lack of leisure had not assembled for me the family history.

Prof. Leonard Wilson of California is now at work on my 'lost John' line and I sincerely hope that he furnishes me with the one bit of information that is so necessary to my genealogy. As he compiled this particular line for Mrs. Edward Beale McLean of Washington, it would seem that he could do likewise for me, doesn't it? As you were the means of my being able to locate Prof. Wilson, you'll never know how much I appreciate the assistance.

Am just now getting able to resume my research work and can't as yet sit at the typewriter too long at a time.

With best regards, I am,

Cordially yours,

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Please pardon my seeming negligence in not letting you hear from me upon receipt of the papers you sent me prior to my departure East but time was flying, so it seemed, and it was the hour of leaving before I realized it. I had hoped to get to Smithfield but again time didn't permit, much to my regret, so I am writing you to say thank you now.

While in Richmond at the State Library I found the following wills given for the Beales (various spellings) of Southampton, Isle of Wight Counties and I'd like to have abstracts made of them:

After checking the inventories of the various Beales listed above, if there isn't any identification regarding their families, no need to abstract them.

I am enclosing my sketch of the Southampton and Isle of Wight Beales as it seems it would be according to material available. You may check them with the data you find on record and it will make your research easier.

From your Isle of Wight Marriages I have obtained the generations marked with red;
Benj. Beale, Sr., of Isle of Wight of County, Va. md

X A1 Benj. Beal Jr., died 1713, md 1689 Martha, dau Jno Neville

X B1 John Beel of Southampton, died 1769 (have abstract of his will), bought land in 1721 from Francis Bracey in Isle of Wight Co, md 1745 Patience Mayo, dau of Wm. Mayo, Sr., of the Lower Parish and wife Isabel, Joyner.

C1 John Beel of St. Luke's Parish, died 1777, md Liddia Johnston, dau of Benj. Johnston of Southampton, who died 1767, and wife Mary

D1 Drewry Beale, d intestate 1818, md Mary, dau Edmund Spencer of St. Luke's Parish who died 1784 and wife, Mary

E1 Jessie Drew Beale md Margaret P. Lamb of Petersburg, Va.
and moved to N. C.

D2 Burwell Beale

D3 John Beale

C2 Joshua Beale md Mary (believe I have located his descendants in Miss.

C3 Patience Beale

C5 Abigail Beale

C6 Temperance Beale md Woodward

C7 Beale md Wm. Fowler

C8 Beale md Richard Beel

X B2 Rachel Beale md 1744 Nicholas Dixon, son Thos and Mary Dixon

X B3 Benj. Beal III, md 1748, Lydia, dau of Abraham Rickes

X C1 Mary Beal md 1780 Wm. Parker.

A2 X Mary Beale md 1680 John Luter

At Windsor, Va., there is a Wm. Fletcher Beale who is the son of Samuel S. Beale who was the son of Wm. Beale who lived near Franklin, Southampton County, Va. Wonder if he might belong to the above line?

Wonder if there is any way of determining who the first Benjamin Beale of Isle of Wight County might have been?

From D1 thru to the present generation I obtained the material from Phelan Beale who is a descendant so it is authentic. However, Mr. Beale knew nothing prior to Drewry Beale and Mary Spencer.

From the will of John Beall of St. Luke's Parish, 1778, I learned that Drewry was his son as was also Burwell and John and wife was Liddia.

From the will of John Beel of Southampton, 1769, I learned that he had a son John, as well as the other children given above.

From the marriage date of Benj. Beal, Jr., 1689, it would seem that his birth occurred about 1665 which would give an approximate birth date for his father Benj. Beal, Sr., of Isle of Wight, about 1635. Therefore, it seems impossible that this Benj. Sr., might belong to the family of ColThos. Beale of York County, Va. who did not come to this country until about 1640 and it is presumeable that Benj. Sr was an English emigrant himself. Wonder if there would be any land grants or patents that would determine this fact for us?

Right now I can not think of anything further that might throw some light on the matter but should I, later, I'll send it on to you for whatever assistance it may be in the research.

I wonder if there are old Parish Registers that would give births, deaths and marriages for their members. Sometimes these are the best references possible.

Please advise an approximate charge for this research.

Thanks a lot for the assistance rendered and with best wishes, I am,

Yours truly,

Frances Beal S. Hodges

Mrs. L. L. Chapman,
Smithfield, Va.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

It has been many years since you did some research on the Beale families of Isle of Wight and of Southampton counties for me and now here I am again.

Naturally this genealogy is far from being complete but after some 25 years research, and considering the fact that I am not getting younger, I decided that I had better get this genealogy published for it would be nothing short of a crime to permit all the material I have to be lost to posterity.

Recently I had a letter from Mrs. Constance Beale Shuford of Arden, N.C., and in same she enclosed a copy of a letter to Dr. Tyler written in 1928 by her Grandmother, Mrs Chas. Willing Beale of Arden, who it seems had spent some 50 years doing Beale research only to see it all go up in smoke when their home in Arden was burned. Thus, this letter to Dr. Tyler was written from memory, rather rambling so that I had to outline as I read to get some coherency out of it but in same she mentioned a fact that I had never heard of before and about which I am now interested.

She wrote that one Charles Beale of Richmond Co., Va., sold his property in 1709 and with a Joseph Beale who also owned adjacent property migrated to Surry County. Beyond the birth date of Charles as record in N. Farnham Parish Register of Richmond, Oct. 20, 1678, I have been unable to find anything else pertaining to him. It would seem possible that he did leave Richmond County and he could have gone to Surry, so I would appreciate a run of whatever records Surry County has to ascertain if Charles bought lands after his arrival in 1709-10. Also if a Joseph Beale bought lands at the same time.

At the time you did the research for me, you started the marriage records in Isle of Wight in Deed Bk 1, P 22 with Benj. Beal, Jr., 1689, and Martha Neville, dau of John Neville.

And the wills began with Benj. Beale, Sr., dated Feb. 12, 1712/13 probated April 27, 1713, Isle of Wight Co., W & D Bk- 2, P 358. From this I concluded that this was beginning of the records and the first entries made to the Beale families.

In Southampton County, the marriage record began with Benj. Beale & Elizabeth Cobb, 2-15-1787 (50) and Ministers' Returns, Burwell Beale & Cherry Wilson, 6-13-1784.

For the wills of Southampton, John Beal, dated Jan. 20, 1769 & probated March 9, 1769. Is this the beginning date of the wills of Southampton County?

Another item of interest to me from this letter of Mrs. Beale to Dr. Tyler: The Beale family had estate in Nansemond Co., Va., as well as St. Croix, V. I., where their chief estates were Jerusalem & Parádise....I wonder if Jerusalem, Southampton Co., Va., was built upon their estate & name for the St. Croix estate? Have you ever heard of this estate or plantation in Southampton County?

And do you have any knowledge of the records in Nansemond Co? One George Beale II married 1793, his 4th cousin, Mary Dixon, a descendant of Ruth Beale, brother of our Thomas, whose gr-gr-grandson was George II. Is this marriage record there?

Among the records you sent to me originally, there was were a number of Dixons mentioned, witnesses & securities, etc., but nothing that would identify them for me.

Mrs. Beale's letter says this Mary Dixon, was a granddaughter of Anthony-Tucker, near Hampton. Maybe this will help identify Mary Dixon.

Anyway, I am most anxious for this new information if I can get it as I am trying to get the master copy to the printer by Feb.15th, at the latest. So your assistance will be very much appreciated.

Sincerely yours

Frances B. Hodges

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Did not mean to be so negligent in acknowledging receipt of the data obtained by you but illness in the family has kept me so busy that I've not had a minute in which to indulge in personal affairs such as genealogy. So please accept my apologies and thanks for your co-operation as well as interest.

I am writing again to see if you can help me to find out anything further about the Beale genealogy compiled by Prof. Wilson for Mrs. McLean of Washington. I wrote Mrs. McLean and was advised by her Secretary that Mrs. McLean could not give the desired information and had lost tract of Prof. Wilson. This was, more or less, a confirmation of the compilation of the genealogy but did me no good whatsoever. I wonder if you could learn, from whatever source you heard of the history, where a copy may be found. The Congressional Library does not have one. If I could just get my hands on this Prof. Wilson, it would probably mean clearing up for many Beale descendants of a line that remains up to date ~~untrue~~ unauthenticated. Or if I could even find a copy of the book in the possession of a person who is not so selfish as Mrs. McLean is, they would probably lend their assistance.

Mr. E. L. Beale of Franklin, Va., is not co-operating with me and Mr. Cyrus W. Beale of Richmond in obtaining and straightening out the Southampton and Isle of Wight Beales and I've advised each of them to call on you for whatever assistance they may need. I presume Mr. E. L. Beale will be the one to cover the counties familiar with these families as he is conveniently located to do so. Anyway here's wishing you luck for it means a lot to me to have their able assistance.

ISLE of WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

Blanche Adams Chapman (Mrs. Lewis L.), a Genealogist, who specializes in the records of Isle of Wight and surrounding counties has compiled a list of marriages, which includes:

1. Over one thousand "Inferred Marriages" that can be proven from the Isle of Wight and Southampton County Records, the earliest of which is dated 1628.
2. The Marriage Bonds preserved in the County through 1800.
3. The Ministers' Returns through 1800.
4. The marriages recorded in the Quaker Records of the Lower Virginia Meeting.
5. The marriages recorded in the Pagan Creek Meeting.

This list contains about 2,500 marriages arranged alphabetically. It is mimeographed on good paper 8½ x 11½, with a heavy paper cover.

The pamphlet contains 137 pages, which includes an index of the names of the women.

Price $5.00 postpaid.
